#ICE2025

Become a Sponsor of the 5th International Conference on Electrolysis

We are excited to offer sponsorship opportunities for the fifth International Conference on Electrolysis (ICE) in 2025. This event has rapidly become a key platform for PhD students, academic researchers and technical experts from industry to share breakthroughs in electrolysis technology, particularly in its role in energy conversion and green hydrogen production.

Following the success of previous editions in Denmark, Norway, the United States, and South Africa, ICE 2025 will continue to focus on advancing electrolysis technologies crucial for the global energy transition. It will take place from August 25-29, 2025 in Freiburg, Germany.

Sponsors will have the unique opportunity to engage with leading minds in the field, showcase their innovations, and align their brand with the future of sustainable energy solutions.
